Handmade FOR YOU

JANUARY–JUNE 2020 MINI CATALOG
Dear friends,

One of the things I love best about creative events is watching people open up as they make their projects. Yes, they’re putting ink to paper or tying bows, but they’re also forming bonds and creating connections.

For some, stamping is a family activity that can span generations. My daughter and I hold monthly papercrafting parties in our neighborhood, and children stamp, too—including my granddaughters.

So creativity often provides a way to build relationships, but I’ve also noticed that it enhances self-esteem. Create something and you feel better. Male, female, young, old. Creativity builds confidence.

So if you thought papercrafting was just about stamps, ink, and paper—think again! It’s also about helping people grow and strengthening relationships. As one demonstrator said: “People don’t know how much they need to gather with others. It’s therapy.”

I wholeheartedly agree, and hope you’ll find inspiration for creativity (and gathering!) within the pages of this beautiful catalog.

ORDERING
All products in this catalog may be purchased through a Stampin’ Up! demonstrator. Demonstrators are independent contractors and are not employees of Stampin’ Up! To help your demonstrator ensure accuracy in taking your order, always include item number, description, and price of each item ordered. Your demonstrator will provide you with two copies of your order. Please retain these copies for your personal records. If ordering online, you may print your receipt to keep for your personal records. You have a right to cancel your order within three business days of placing it (five business days of placing the order in Alaska; 15 business days of placing the order for customers age 65 or older in North Dakota). Ask your demonstrator for more details.

For specific details regarding delivery, product guarantees, exchanges, and refunds as well as a special limitation that may apply on discontinued or defective products, please see the Stampin’ Up! website at stampinup.com/termsofuse.
